Important Notice

Running can be an enjoyable and exciting activity. However, like many recreational activities which require physical exertion, running carries with it the risk of physical injury. You should remember at all times that you will be running on perhaps unfamiliar territory and extra caution and awareness will be required.

The risks associated with running include the risk that:

- you may lose your footing or balance;
- you may suffer from heat exhaustion; or
- you might encounter fallen tree branches or reptiles such as snakes.

and as a result

- you may be injured by objects that you pass, such as tree branches;
- you may fall while you are running
- you may dehydrate.

There are other risks to which you may be exposed to including uneven terrain and adverse changes in weather conditions. You should ensure that you wear appropriate clothing and that you do not run alone.

I note that the Grenfell Henry Lawson Festival Committee is a committee formed pursuant to Section 355 of the Local Government Act (1993) as amended.

By participating in the cross country run provided by the Grenfell Henry Lawson Festival of Arts Committee, I agree:

- to comply with all directions given by the run co-ordinator, officials and volunteers.
- that I participate entirely at my own risk;
- that I am sufficiently trained for the run and I am not aware of any illness, injury, physical disability or impairment which may cause me injury or death while participating in the run.
- that the agreement for services provided to you by the Grenfell Henry Lawson Festival of Arts Committee does not include any implied or express warranty that the services of such Committee will be rendered with due care and skill or that any materials provided by the Henry Lawson Festival of Arts Committee in connection with the cross country run will be fit for the purpose for which they are supplied; and,

I release all persons or corporations associated directly or indirectly with the event from all claims, demands and proceedings arising out of my participation and I hereby indemnify such persons or corporations against all liability, loss or damage arising out of my participation in the event, including any breach of these terms and conditions by me. This release and indemnity extends to and includes Weddin Shire Council, its officers, agents, contractors, employees, promoters, sponsors and volunteers; occupiers of land upon which the event or any part of it takes place, any statutory body or local authority having control over any land upon which the event or any part of it takes place or which is involved directly or indirectly with the event in any manner whatsoever. This release and indemnity continues forever and binds my heirs, executors, personal representatives and assigns.

• that the Grenfell Henry Lawson Festival of Arts Committee, the Weddin Shire Council, Fun run co-ordinator or designated volunteers have no liability whatsoever to you for personal injury or death arising from participation in the run.

• That I am over/under 18 years old (please circle).
